Once upon a time, there was a little girl named Lily who loved to play outside. She loved to run and jump and play with her friends. But one day, Lily noticed something that made her sad. She saw that there was a lot of litter on the ground. There were candy wrappers, plastic bottles, and even old toys. Lily knew that this was not right. She knew that litter was bad for the environment and that it could hurt animals. So, Lily decided to do something about it.

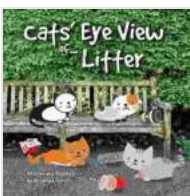

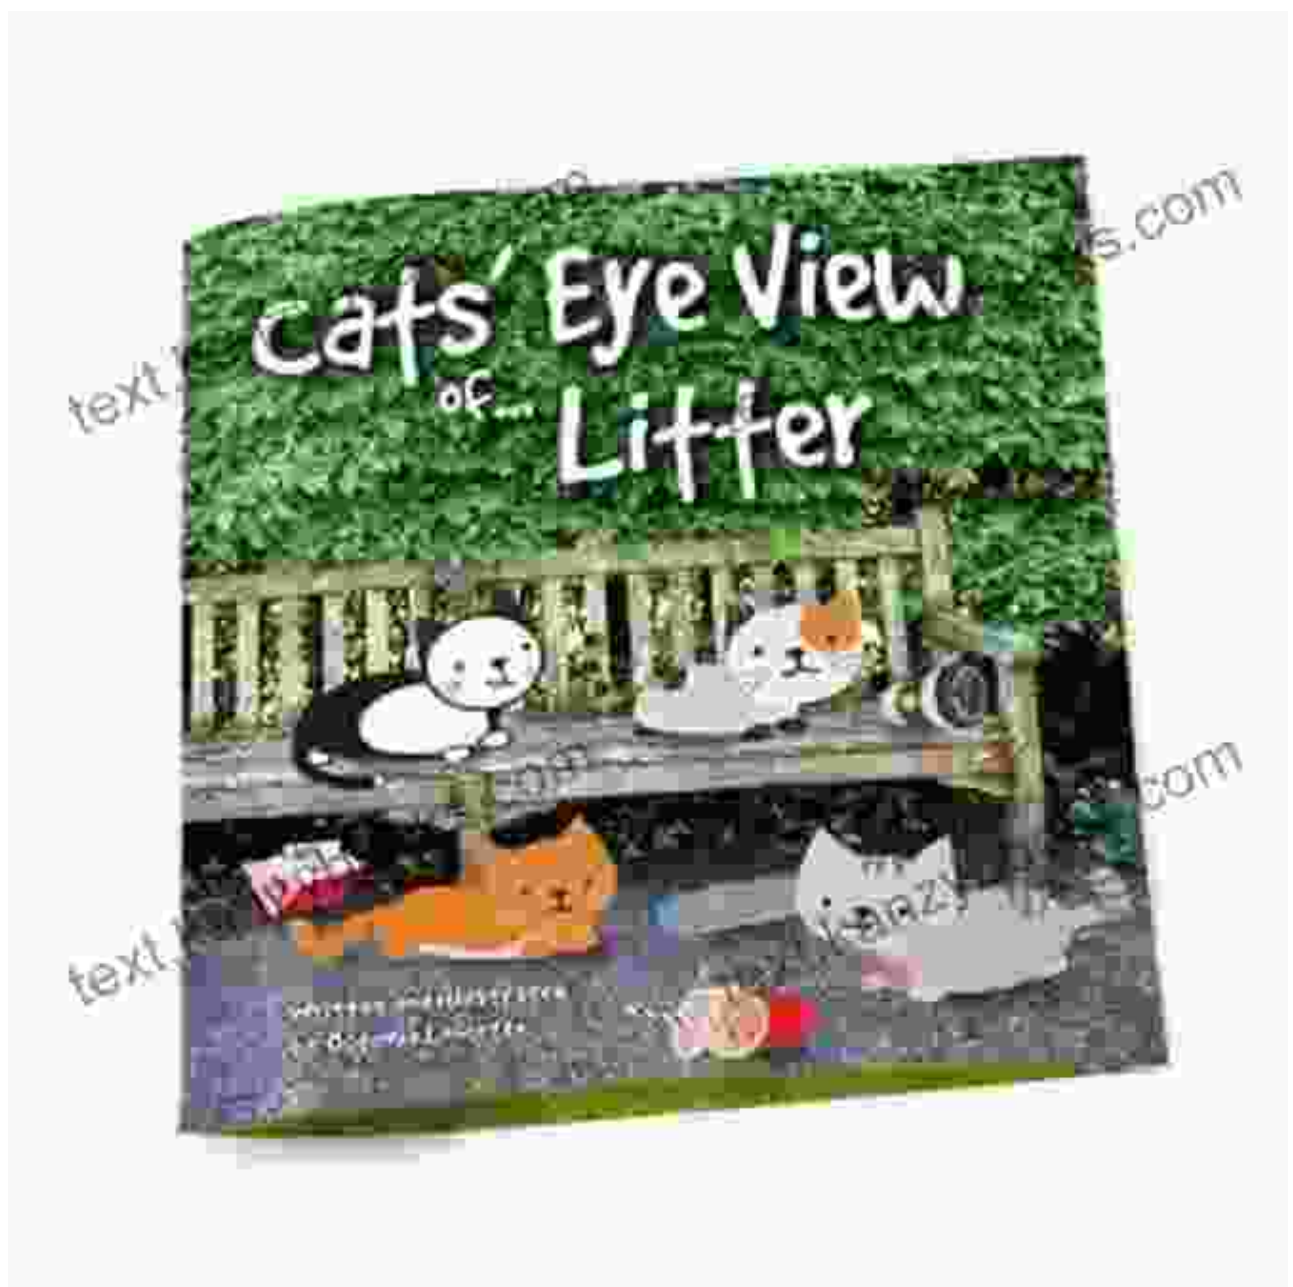

Lily went home and told her parents what she had seen. Her parents were also concerned about the litter, so they decided to help Lily clean it up. They got some gloves and garbage bags and went back to the park. Lily and her parents worked hard to pick up all the litter. They filled up several garbage bags. When they were finished, the park looked so much better. Lily was so proud of herself for helping to make her community a cleaner place.

The next day, Lily went back to the park to play. She was happy to see that there was no more litter on the ground. She knew that she had made a difference. Lily's story is a reminder that we all have a responsibility to keep our environment clean. Even small actions, like picking up litter, can make a big difference.
